Crl.M.C.No. 138 of 2004

ORDER

Counsel for the petitioner is absent and there is no representation on his behalf. Counsel for the respondents submits that the anticipatory bail granted to respondents 4 and 5 in this case was subsequently cancelled, as they got themselves involved in another serious crime and were in judicial custody and therefore, could not comply with the conditions attached to the grant of anticipatory bail; but, subsequently, regular bail was granted to them both in the case, wherein they were detained in judicial custody as also in Crime No.432/03 of North Parur Police Station; that, therefore, the question of cancellation of anticipatory bail granted in Crime No.432/03 of North Parur Police Station, as prayed for in this Crl.M.C., does not arise and that this Crl.M.C. has become infructuous.

This submission is recorded and this Crl.M.C., in the circumstances, is dismissed.
